1. RECRUITMENT POLICY & PROCEDURE

OBJECTIVE

The college recruitment policy aims at attracting and retaining the best talent in the educational field so that the right quality of manpower is available to the Institution at the right time. The Institution would seek to ensure, as far as possible, that the selection process is transparent, fair and reliable.

ELIGIBILITY&APPLICABILITY

This policy is applicable to all new recruits in all grades of Teaching & Non-Teaching departments

Provision in approved HR annual operating plan (AOP) will be a pre-requisite for all recruitment in the organization

POLICY & PROCEDURE

Selection of Personnel in Grades / Bands

When a vacancy needs to be filled up, the Principal has to submit the requisition requirement form with justification duly approved by the Head of the Department to HRD. The HRD will review the application basing on need as per the AICTE norms. The college has to maintain student faculty ratio as per AICTE norms from time to time.

All posts at the Institute shall normally and, as far as possible, be filled by advertisement; but, the "Governing Body" shall be the exclusive power to decide, either on its own or on the recommendations of the Principal, that a particular post be filled by invitation or by promotion from amongst the members of the staff of the Institute. Appointments, with or without grades, in the Institute will be created on Ad-hoc, Temporary, and Regular as per the requirement of actual manpower, from time to time.

Additional posts may also be created, as required, for the extension of specific projects and/or research and development activities.

All appointments of the staff of the Institute shall be approved by the "Governing Body" of the Institute.

Internal Selection:

HR will first examine whether the vacancy can be filled up from among the internal candidates, either by way of transfer from the surplus staff or by way of up gradation/promotion.

Open Market:

If no suitable person is available within the institution, HR will proceed to fill up the vacancy from the open market. In case, candidate who attends the interview is rejected, he/she is not eligible to attend the interview with in next 6 months.

Advertisement:

HR will, in consultation with the principal, prepare an advertisement for release in the newspapers/browse from job portals. If the decision is to entrust the selection work to a Placement Agency, the advertisement will be forwarded to them.

Scrutiny and Short listing

HR will, on receipt of the applications along with the desired documents and two referrals, screen them so as to draw up a short list of candidates for Preliminary Interview. Technical/functional interviews shall be scheduled after consulting with concerned technical/functional Heads.

Note: In general terms, the Institution may not pay or reimburse the TA/DA and other expenses to the candidate called for an interview.

Interview Panel

The Preliminary Interview Panel will be constituted by the HR in consultation with the Principal.

Selection Committee for teaching staff: -the following are the members of Selection Committee for selection of Professor/Associate Professor / Asst. Professor

- a) Head of the Institute
- b) Head of Department
- c) Two Subject experts not below the rank of Professor

Selection Committee for Non-teaching staff: - All regular appointments of non-teaching staff are made by the non-teaching selection committee constituted by the principal from time to time.

Appointment/Provisional Letter

The selection result will be informed to the candidate after ascertaining the antecedence etc. In any a case it should not take more than 07 working Days. The standard letter of offer of appointment/Provisional order will be issued to the candidate / prospective employee.

Induction/Orientation

HRD has an induction program, and the new recruits are exposed to various functions and Teams before being placed in their actual jobs. The Induction training will be carried out wherein which the employee will undergo be provided orientation to on Institution history and philosophy, rules and regulations, facilities, and policies and procedures, basic etiquettes and HR policies. They will then report to their respective HOD's for a detailed introduction to the activities of the department.

Probationary Period

Period of Probation: All employees will be on probation for a period of one year irrespective of the cadre and category. The employee can resign during probation period by with a notice period of one month. However, the management can terminate him/ her without any prior notice at their discretion.

Confirmation:

Employees, whose performance is found to be satisfactory / good can be confirmed in service at the end of the probation period. An employee is deemed to be confirmed only after a letter to this that effect is issued indicating the satisfactory completion of the probationary period. From the day of confirmation, he is entitled for employment benefits as specified in the Service rules/HR policy.

Faculty Ratification Policy

Objective:

To ensure all existing faculty members, who are recruited by college selection committee, are ratified by JNTUA selection committee complying with regulatory requirements

Policy & Procedure

All faculty recruited by the Selection Committee and whose names are recommended for ratification shall have to attend the ratification interviews conducted by the affiliating university (JNTUA) from time to time. The Institute shall notify all eligible faculty to attend the ratification interviews as per the JNTUA's notified schedule.

The onus of meeting the standards of the ratification committee shall be on the faculty. In case a faculty member fails to be ratified, his or her annual appraisal period will be extended by six months or until the next ratification interview, whichever is later. The annual increment in such cases shall be released only after ratification in the subsequent batch. In addition, such a faculty shall forego the DA which may be announced during the extended appraisal period, and will be eligible for it only at the end of the extended appraisal period.

While those who fail the ratification process the first time shall be accorded a second chance, a second failure will cause a faculty's services to be terminated. In effect, a faculty shall be deemed to be on probation for one year or until ratification, whichever is later.

A faculty who does not attend the ratification interview as required may also invite termination. Only on serious medical grounds, with due medical certificate, may a faculty seek exemption from attending a ratification interview. In all such cases, the Principal shall be the deciding authority.

2. LEAVE POLICY

OBJECTIVE

The very objective of framing the Leave policy in our institution is to provide reasonable opportunity to the members of staff to meet their medical exigencies/emergencies and also to attend to their personal and domestic problems as well as requirements. Unless a member of staff is free from other burdens, concentrating on his teaching and other official functions could be affected adversely, is the idea behind providing them with the reasonable opportunity to take leave from their duties while earning their salaries for such leave of absence. Keeping these aspects in view the policy is designed/ formulated.

ELIGIBILITY & APPLICABILITY

All the members of staff who have put in a minimum of one year service and are confirmed on the regular rolls of the college would be eligible for the leaves detailed herein below. Other employees those who have not put in minimum service as prescribed and those who are on temporary / probation and working on daily wages will be given casual leave on prorata basis

Responsible : Individual

Approver : Principal

Support : HOD

Inform : HOD

PS: The above authority depends on the Cadre/category of members of staff, situation and the condition in which the leave is applied and the type of leave applied.

Policy & Procedure

CASUAL LEAVE: :Members of staff who have completed one year of service are entitled for twelve (12) days Casual Leaves, which will be credited in two phases i.e. Six Casual leaves on 1st January and the remaining Six casual leaves on 1st July every year.

Casual leave should be availed with prior approval from the HOD and after sanction from the Principal. However, in case of emergency where there is no opportunity to take prior approval, information should be given to the HOD through message or through phone and submit the Casual Leave application immediately on resuming duty. Such facility is allowed only twice in a period i.e. From January to June and July to December. In case of repetition on 3rd time then the leave will be treated as two leaves against applying of one day casual leave.

Casual leave will be credited at the rate of Six days during the first six months of the calendar year (i.e. 1st January to 30th June) and a member can avail a maximum of six days only during the first six months, not beyond that. Remaining Six Casual leaves will be credited during the remaining six months of the calendar year (i.e. 1st July to 31st December). However, in case a member of staff does not avail all the six leaves during the first six months, such un-availed casual leave can be carried forward to the next six months of the calendar year. Un-availed casual leave (left over casual leave) after the calendar year i.e. 31st December will automatically get lapsed

Casual Leave can either be prefixed or suffixed with holiday/weekly offs, not on both sides of the holidays/weekly offs. In case Casual leave is availed on both sides of a holiday/Weekly off, Intervening holidays or weekly offs will be considered as casual leave and CL to that extent will be debited from the leave credit of the member of staff.

Member of staff whose service is less than one year, will be entitled to Casual Leave from the date of joining, calculated on prorated basis, i.e. @ of One CL per every completed service of one month from the date of joining and the same will be credited on the first day of succeeding month

Casual leave cannot be permitted to be availed for more than 03 days on each occasion.

SICK LEAVE: Every teaching/Non-teaching member of staff completed one year of service will be entitled 12 days Sick Leave in a Calendar year. Trainees and other employees working on temporary/probation basis will not be entitled to Sick Leave.

An employee availing Sick Leave due illness should give the probable date of resuming duties basing on the doctor's certification to consider his / her request for approval/sanction of leave by the HOD/ Principal.

Sick Leave can be accumulated up to a maximum of 30 days; credit beyond 30 days cannot be carried forward and over and above 30 days will automatically get lapsed.

In special circumstances for members of staff not covered under ESI, management reserves the right to grant additional sick leave in genuine cases of long illness. Such cases have to be referred to the Director/management/GB with the recommendation of the Principal.

Sick leave to the credit of the member of staff cannot be en-cashed either during the period of his service or at the time of his leaving the services.

Sick Leave can be prefixed or suffixed with holidays/weekly offs. However, such holidays occurring during (in Between) the period of leave will be counted as part of Sick Leave.

Sick leave should be availed for a period of minimum two days at a time, for less than two days, sick leave is not permitted.

Member of staff availing Sick leave has to attach Medical Certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner, while availing sick leave, irrespective of number of days.

A staff member can avail only 50% of the sick leave he is eligible for during the first six months of the calendar year and balance 50% can be availed during the second six months' period. As has been made clear un-availed sick leave to a maximum of 30 days can be carried forward to the next year.

Sick leave should be availed with prior approval from the principal and after sanction from the Director/Management.

MATERNITY LEAVE: Maternity Leave for a period of 180 days can be availed by women staff. The same will not be sanctioned on more than 2 occasions in the entire period of their service.

Employees covered under ESI will be entitled for maternity leave as per ESI Act.

Before proceeding on Maternity Leave the individual concerned will have to produce a certificate from the doctor indicating the probable date of delivery, based on which she will be sanctioned Maternity Leave as indicated above.

As a general rule 180 days of leave will be availed in two parts i.e. 90days before and 90 days after the date of delivery, or as per the convenience of the concerned woman staff member at the discretion of the Principal/ Director/Management.

In case of requirement of maternity leave for further extended period beyond the permitted Leave, the same could be adjusted against Sick Leave if any to the credit of the concerned woman staff member, in which case the request for extension may be considered subject to furnishing of a Medical Certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner at the sole discretion of the Director at the recommendation of the Principal.

A member of woman staff should have completed one year service for getting eligible for Maternity leave.

Maternity leave should be availed with prior approval from the principal and after sanction from the Director/Management.

ACADEMIC LEAVE: Teaching staff those who have completed one year of service are permitted to go on Academic leave for the purposes of Academic interests such as for pursuing further higher qualifications like Ph.D. etc. or for Seminars, symposiums, workshops etc which may personally benefit him in his career. As such, teaching staff are entitled to 12 (twelve) days of privilege Leave in a calendar year (01st January to 31st December) for purposes of Academic interests only with the prior permission of the Principal and Director. In extraordinary situations, Director can sanction Academic leave beyond the prescribed twelve days at his discretion.

Those that join the college midway during the year will get leaves on pro rata basis. Leave should be availed with prior approval and sanction from the Principal/Director.

Leave cannot be accumulated. Un-availed leaves will lapse at the end of the calendar year. Leave can be prefixed or suffixed with holiday/weekly offs. However such holidays occurring during the period on Leave will be counted as part of leave.

COMPENSATORY OFF: Compensatory off is granted to those members of staff, who have performed duties on their weekly off/ holidays, with the prior written permission from the Principal. While working on Sunday or on any other declared holiday, staff should work for a minimum period of eight working hours for eligibility of one Compensatory Off.

In order to meet exigencies of Institution work, employees who are permitted to work on their weekly off/declared holidays will be allowed to avail compensatory off.

The compensatory off earned during the six months' period i.e. either during the first six months or during the second six months of the calendar year, should be availed within that six months period only. Unavailed days of compensatory offs of any six months' period cannot be carried forward to the next six months under any circumstances.

Compensatory off will be sanctioned by the Director with the recommendation of the principal.

Compensatory off should be availed with prior approval from the principal and after sanction from the Director.

ON DUTY: In case a member of teaching staff is deputed by the management on the specific instructions of the University on duties like Observer, for paper valuation or any such other official function either of University or of the college, then his period of absence to the college will be treated as Official Duty (OD). OD will be sanctioned by the Director with the recommendation of the principal.

PROCEDURE TO AVAIL LEAVE:

An employee shall apply for leave in the prescribed Leave Application Form mentioning the reason. The same has to be submitted to the HOD for recommendation /sanction. HOD shall recommend the leaves of his/her Department members of staff and the same shall be forwarded to the Principal for sanction. After sanction the leave form will be forwarded to HR for maintaining leave record.

In case a member of staff wants to cancel sanctioned leave in full or in part, he/she should obtain the recommendation of the HOD on his leave cancellation letter and submit the same to the HR. The application should be submitted within 24 hrs of the availing dates and in any case before 20th of the current month

As payroll is processed from 1st to 30th / 31st of the month and attendance from 26th of the preceding month till 25th of the current month, leave availed till 25th of the present month will be taken into account in order to calculate monthly salary. Leaves availed from 25th to 30th / 31st of the current month will be calculated in the succeeding month's payroll.

Leave without pay: In case an employee exhausts all his / her leaves, he / she may be granted leave without pay in special cases, at the discretion of the Principal/ Director.

All Departments and members of staff should adhere to the leave policy for systematic recording of attendance. Leave records should be meticulously maintained/ updated by HR.

9. DISCIPLINARY POLICY & PROCEDURE

OBJECTIVE

Unsatisfactory job performance, misconduct, habitual late attendance absenteeism, failure to comply with Institutional policies and procedures or any other breaches of employer/employee relationship may result in disciplinary action. The Institution's policy requires initiating of disciplinary action against employees only:

- In cases where good reason and clear evidence exists.
- When it is appropriate to the nature of the offence.
- When demonstrably fair and consistent with previous action in similar circumstances.
- Takes place only when employees are aware of the Disciplinary standards that are expected of them or the rules with which they are required to conform to.
- To allow employees during the disciplinary proceeding the right to be accompanied by a colleague of their own choice.
- Allow employees the right to appeal against any disciplinary action.

ELIGIBILITY&APPLICABILITY

All employees of the Institution.

PURPOSE

This Disciplinary Code aims to:

- Promote efficient and safe performance of work.
- Maintain good employee relations within the Institution.
- Help and encourage staff to achieve and maintain the appropriate standards of conduct that the Institution expects of its entire staff.

DEFINITION:

Disciplinary Procedure-Sequence of activities to be carried out when staff do not conform to the laid down norms, rules and regulations of the institution.

Discipline: The Practice of people to follow rules or code of Conduct.

Misconduct- Behaving in an unprofessional manner.

Major misconduct: Repeated acts of misconduct.

Gross misconduct: Gross misconduct is misconduct so serious that it breaches the contract of employment.

Policy & Procedure

The Departmental Head shall make a complaint to reprimand the delinquent employee, provided the employee is indeed found to have committed the misconduct.

The HR shall examine the complaint, consult the Departmental Head, and consider the gravity of the misconduct as well as the past record of the delinquent employee. In case the misconduct is minor in nature and the past record of the employee is unblemished, the HR shall carry out counseling of the employee or warn the delinquent employee, orally or in writing.

In case the misconduct is major in nature and/or the employee has a blemished past record, the HR shall in consultation with Head of the institution, order a preliminary enquiry by appointing an enquiry officer or/and issue show cause notice to the delinquent employee for his written explanation.

On receipt of the reply to the show cause notice, if the delinquent employee accepts his role in the misconduct and if the institution Head is satisfied with the reply, he shall issue a written warning or suspend the employee for one to five days, as a reprimand.

In case, the delinquent employee does not accept his role in the misconduct or the institution Head is not satisfied with the written explanation of the delinquent employee, he shall direct further enquiry in to the charges leveled against the delinquent employee.

Action (or) recommendations by Enquiry office shall be initiated by the institution Head.

General Discipline:

All employees are expected to conduct themselves in a manner conducive to efficient and smooth working of the institution. An employee who does not conduct himself/ herself in a proper manner must be corrected through appropriate disciplinary action. An illustrative list of 'misconducts' warranting disciplinary action is given in sub-section below. The purpose of disciplinary action is to correct rather than to punish the employee. If the offense is of a grave nature or if efforts at correction do not meet with success, severe disciplinary action such as discharge or dismissal may have to be resorted to.

Secrecy:

No employee will take any paper, books, drawings, photographs, equipment or any other property of the Institution out of the premises of the Institution office/Premises in which he/ she is engaged provided he/ she is specially authorized by the Management to take such things out of the office/institutional premises.

No employee will be permitted to keep copies of classified official documents with him/ her without proper authorization.
